October Newsletter

By: Sister Gulsangay Rashidi

Assalamu Alaikum An-Noor Parents,

There are many interesting things happening at An-Noor School.

First, I would like to inform everyone that the parent teacher conferences are underway. We are meeting with all of the parents to help plan Hifdh goals for the school year. We will also schedule academic parent teacher conferences in the first few weeks of November.

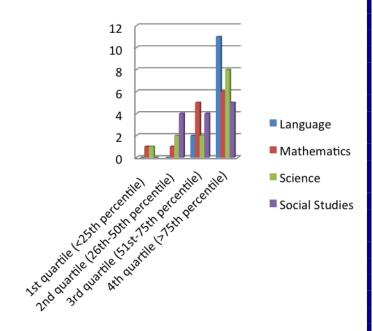

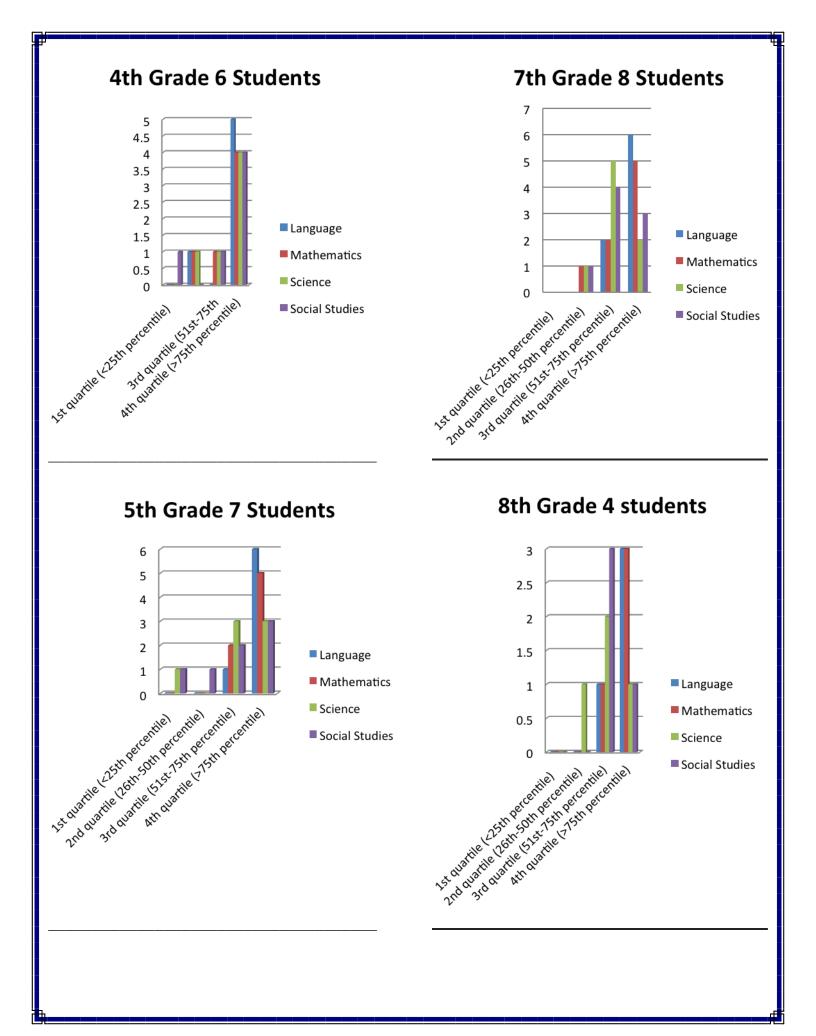

Secondly, we are extremely excited to let you know that we will be getting new Chromebooks for the school! We will be setting up computer stations in the office and our students will have the opportunity to enhance their learning in Hifdh and Academics using technology.

Finally, we are pleased to announce that last years Terra nova results were received and analyzed. Below are the results graphed in bar charts and as you can see, MashAllah most students performed above the national average.

Hifdh Workshop for Parents

I would like to invite everyone to the first parent workshop for this year. In order to help the parents in being more effectively involved in their children's Hifdh, we have organized a mandatory workshop with Imam Abu Taleb on Saturday, November 4th at 2pm. All parents are required to attend. In the past, most parents who attended parent workshops have found them to be conducive in helping their children. Lunch will be served inshAllah.

PTSO Corner By: Maria Akhtar

Assalam o alaikum,

Thank you to all the parents who elected me and my team to work together as PTSO representatives. Sr. Humaira Rasheed is serving this year as PTSO Vice President and Sr. Samia Navaid is the secretary.

I have been an An-Noor mom since 2010 and am very familiar with the school. Our role as the PTSO is to provide support and encouragement to the students and enhance their experience at An-Noor. Listed below are some of the things that we do :

- Arrange and organize field trips
- Plan Juzz Completion ceremonies
- A-B honor roll celebrations after report card distribution
- The Annual An-Noor fundraiser
- Yearbook

To raise money for these and other activities, we have a monthly Fundraiser lunch, where 3-4 volunteer parents provide lunch for students and staff and students pay $5. I encourage all the parents to support us in arranging this event along with volunteering with other PTSO activities. Jazak Allah khair Sr. Naheed Khan, Sr. Fauzia Salahuddin and Sr. Bushra Dioune for sponsoring the October lunch. My best wishes are always with the An-Noor family.

Afterschool Programs

Community Quran Reading Classes by ANQA

Learn to read and recite Quran properly from An Noor Quran Academy's certified experts! Open to all students and all levels elementary, middle school, high school, college, or beyond, and from Beginner to Advanced levels. Classes are offered during convenient late afternoon/evening hours in small groups to allow for more individualized instruction.

Fee per student is $50/month (Fee waiver and/or financial assistance available upon request).

All classes are held at IAR.

Separate classes for Brothers & Sisters.

1) Quran Reading For Children Beginner Level:

This course is for students who are learning to read Arabic & recite Quran with proper Tajweed, The goal of the class is to develop the skill to be able to read Qur'an.

2) Quran Reading For Boys Intermediate Level:

This course is for Boys who can read Quran with some difficulty and desire to recite Quran fluently with proper Tajweed.

3) Quran Reading For Girls Intermediate Level:

This course is for Girls who can read Quran with some difficulty and desire to recite Quran fluently with proper Tajweed.

Updates on Our beloved An-Noor Hifdh Going to College

With the immense blessings of Allah SWT, we are pleased to share the good news that An Noor School's first batch of graduates entered college this Fall. Graduates will be attending Duke University, UNC-Chapel Hill, and Wake Tech. Three out of the four matriculating students graduated with a highschool GPA \ge 4.5.

Amina Mohamed is majoring in Public Policy and Global Health at Duke University. She graduated from An Noor to continue her education at Raleigh Charter High School. She also completed an internship at The African Summit at Kigali, Rwanda. According to Amina memorizing the Quran was a blessing in her life, which helped her memorize and retain facts faster and easier.

Hamza Kidwai graduated from An Noor School in 2013 and was a part of its pilot program. Hamza joined Wake Young Men's Leadership Academy and graduated as Salutatorian to join UNC Chapel hill where he is pursuing his degree in Computer Science. Hamza's commitment to Islam and the Qur'an motivated him to lead the Taraweh prayers at the Islamic Association of Raleigh, Morrisville Masjid and the mosque at Shaw University. According to Hamza, the training and Tarbiyah at An Noor School has played a major role in transforming and building his personality and character.

Muaizz Rashidi completed his Hifdh in 2013. Since then Muaizz ihas been taking Arabic and Tafseer classes and is enrolled in the Ijaza program for Hifdh. He has led the Taraweh, Qiyam ul Lail and the Fajr prayers in the Islamic Center of Temecula in California and Winners Masjid in North Raleigh. He also has been leading Fajr prayers at the Islamic Association of Raleigh on Saturdays for the past two years. Muaizz has also taught Qur'an and Islamic studies in the Islamic Center of Cary. Muaizz is enrolled in the Engineering Transfer Program at Wake Tech Community College.

Ali Hida graduated from An Noor in 2013 and has led Taraweh prayers at Islamic Association of Raleigh and at the masajids at Shaw University and High Point. Ali is enrolled in Wake Tech Community College in the Computer Science program.

The academic and leadership achievements of these Huffadh are truly commendable. We pray that Allah SWT bless them, their families, and the entire IAR community for helping make the dream of Qur'an memorization plus academic success into a reality.
